Thailand Visa for Indian Citizens Online (TDAC)

(The information below is as per existing laws. ISPPD cannot be held responsible for any changes in the visa rules.)

The good news?

Indian passport holders do not need a Thailand tourist visa or business visa for short-term stays of up to 60 days. Instead, what's mandatory is the Thailand Digital Arrival Card (TDAC), a fully online form required prior to arrival.

Thailand Digital Arrival Card (TDAC): The TDAC is a mandatory pre-arrival form for all non-Thai nationals, including Indian travellers. It is not a visa, but is required for immigration clearance

Thailand Visa (TDAC) Fee-₹0

Documents Required for Thailand Visa (TDAC) Application

Before you begin the Thailand visa application (TDAC) process, it's important to have all required documents ready. This ensures your application goes smoothly and without delays.

Valid Passport: Original passport with at least 6 months validity from your intended return date to India.

TDAC-Visa Application Form: Completed in English, with accurate details and valid signatures.

Flight Ticket: Proof of confirmed return or onward travel through flight bookings.

Proof of Accommodation: Document showing where you'll stay during your trip, like hotel bookings

Thailand Tourist Visa (TDAC): Requirements and Application Process

If you're planning a trip to Thailand, it's important to understand the Thailand visa requirements for Indian citizens (TDAC) to ensure a smooth and enjoyable journey.

Eligibility: Indian passport holders have to apply for a Thailand visa (TDAC) for all travel purposes, including tourism, business, work, or transit.

Mandatory Requirement: All travellers are required to complete the Thailand Digital Arrival Card (TDAC) online within three days (72 hours) prior to arrival.

Application: Start the Thailand e-Visa application (TDAC) process easily on
